

Obituary

Born: Saturday, August 21, 1982

Died: Tuesday, May 28, 2019

Harold Grant Hess III, 36, succumbed to cancer at home surrounded by people that loved him on Tuesday May 28th, 2019. He is Survived and greatly missed by his wife Danielle Hess and two young sons, Solan and Miles. As well as, his mother, Barbie Palmer, step-father, two brothers, Brent Hess and David Crawford, and two sisters, Deanna Hess and Lynnette Victoria. Harold "Grant" was born August 21st, 1982 in La Grande, Oregon to his birth-mother and father Harold Grant Hess Jr. "Bud". A year later his mother, and the woman who taught him to be the man he was, Barbie Palmer, came into his life. Harold spent a large portion of his childhood growing up in the Hermiston area. Moving away for a short time, he graduated in Weitpe, Idaho. He then spent some time in the Lewiston/ Clarkston area before returning to Oregon and moving to Pendleton. While here he met and fell in love with his wife Danielle. The two were married on July 4th, 2018. Harold was a dedicated employee at the Grain Craft flour mill in Pendleton, Oregon and when not working could be found enjoying spending time with his family and friends playing disc golf, camping, road trips and adventure of all kinds. Not to mention, a little poker on a Saturday night. Harold touched the life and hearts of many and will be eternally missed by all. A celebration of life will be held on June 30th, 2019 at the Eagles in Pendleton, Oregon. Any memorable contributions may be sent to 3059 SW Riverview Dr., Pendleton, Or., 97801
