

Obituary

Born: Thursday, May 8, 1947

Died: Sunday, October 13, 2019

The rain played a somber melody as the angels came to take Margaretta "Gitta" Urbansky into God's Kingdom, on a Sunday afternoon October 13, 2019. Known by many for her thick German accent and candid spirited attitude, Gitta was the embodiment of the American Dream. Gitta was born in Bavaria, Germany on May of 1947 and immigrated to the United States in the late 1960s. Gitta learned English and with grit and determination. She found her passion in life as a Recreational Physical Therapist to the developmentally disabled at the Pendleton State Hospital where she served for over 30 years. Gitta was a beloved member of the Pendleton chapters of the Eagles Club, Elks Club and Travel Club. She was active at the Pendleton Senior Center. Gitta is preceded in death by her beloved husband Harry A. Urbansky. She was a devoted mother of Barbra Miller and Doris Pickerd. She is also survived by many grandchildren and great grandchildren and was a friend to many. A funeral service will be held at Burns Mortuary in Pendleton, on Friday, October 18, 2019 at two o'clock in the afternoon with a graveside service following at Olney Cemetery at three o'clock. In lieu of flowers/donations sent to The Pendleton Humane Society.
